

9^ο MICRO μ FESTIVAL – IMMF 2019

Terms of Participation

- The total duration of each participating film should not exceed 25 minutes.
- In order to be accounted for participation every form should be fully completed and signed by the person who submits the film.
- The festivals schedule and projection series are decided by the festivals organizational committee.
- Each film director can participate with more than one films, provided that they are not older than three years.
- The completed Participation Form should be sent to submissions@micromfestival.gr the latest by July 1st, 2019.
- Upon request from the festival's committee following the form submission, the applicants should post the film and signed participation form at the appointed address.
- All files sent by post should clearly indicate “ Without commercial value, For cultural purposes”
- Shipping charges are covered by the applicants.
- Following the time of the form and film submissions the applicants have no right to withdraw their participation.
- The fifteen short films that will be screened will be selected by a committee that will be announced after the 1st of July 2019.
- The audience of Micro μ festival, the only judge of the festival's films, vote for their favourite film at the day of the festival only after the end of the screenings.
- The festival's award will be given to the director of the film that will collect more votes at the end of the festival.
- MICRO μ FESTIVAL is not responsible for any loss or destruction of material before or after the day of the festival.
- The Organisational committee and all the hosting venues of the festival are not responsible for any copyright issues related to public screening of the films during the festival.
- The Organisational committee has the right to screen part or the full of each film for promotional support of the festival and not for commercial reasons, whenever this seems necessary.
- A copy of each film together with the initial application form and any promotional material sent to us will remain to the festival's archive.
- Any use of devices aiming to record audio or visual parts from the venues of the festival during the festival is strictly forbidden without permission from the Organisational Committee.
- Each signed application received by the festival implies full and unconstrained acceptance of all of the above terms of participation.